ness-financed Committee for Economic Development urged Thursday the enactment of a $6-billion income tax cut offering the greatest benefits to higher-income individuals and corporations. In a formal policy statement, the often-influential CED also called for a second, and later,

tax cut of $5 billion on condition that Congress and the administration hold scheduled federal spending at current levels - an event that seems most unlikely. The CED said its tax package would lead to higher rates of production, employment, investment and growth. It said that while changes would promote budget surpluses in the long run by boosting federal revenues generated by a pepped-up economy. Here is how the first stage of it would make retroactive to Jan. 1, 1963, would look: 1. All individual income tax rates would be reduced at least 8 per cent and no rates would exceed 70 per cent. The rate in the lowest bracket would be reduced from 20 per cent to 18.4 per cent be reduced by $2 billion each. The nonprofit CED, which also claims nonpartisan status, set forth its proposals in the wake of a statement by President Kennedy that the administration intends to go ahead with its plan to ask congress for a tax cut in

Kennedy told his news conference Wednesday it then will be up to the House Ways and Means Committee and Congress whether to accept the administration pro-

Ways and Means Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., was described as feeling that some interpretations of his views against a tax cut were more rigid than they actually are.

Although Mills opposes a quick tax cut early next year, it was learned that he has not closed his mind completely to the possibility that a reduction may be enacted during the year. Under some circumstances this might even be made retroactive to

The Committee for Economic Development argued that an early tax cut is needed to stimulate the economy. While it favored still broader tax changes, it said these should be deferred pending positive efforts to hold federal spending in the 1964 fiscal year, which begins next July 1, to the $93.7-billion level estimated for the current year.

If this can be done, it said, the corporate tax rate should be cut further to 42 per cent and individual rates should be reduced by an additional 6 per cent, with tax to exceed 60 per cent. This would reduce the lowest bracket rate to 17.2 per cent.

The spending clampdown recommended by the CED seems most improbable. Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon said recently that outlays, especially for space and defense programs, inevitably will rise considerably

Hidden Deficit

Official Washington estimates the deficit at $7.8 billion, but left out is a little matter of $3 billion in the calculations. Adding this figure brings the deficit to just under $11 billion for the year.

The oversight is a very real expense. It is money owed to Federal employees. Each year, the Congress is supposed to appropriate money for the Federal employees' retirement fund, just as a private employer is supposed to deposit retirement funds against future pensions. Any employer who failed to do so would be considered imprudent certainly, and possibly criminal.

But for some years, Congress has failed to appropriate the money. Right now the deficit in this fund runs to $37 billion.

This is no minor technicality. Civil Service Commission officials see trouble in the immediate future, and bankruptcy for the fund by 1980 if it keeps up. The Federal obligation is firm and clear. Employees pay 61/2 percent of their pay into the fund, and the Government is supposed to match it. Payout from this fund is expected to run from $3 to $4 billion a year in the near future.

When these amounts come due and the till is empty, Congress will have two choices. It may break faith with the retired employees and slash benefits to which they are entitled, or it can then make the appropriations to cover the amounts due.

It is unlikely that Congress will allow the fund to go bankrupt, or that it will deny employees the benefits they have earned. The only out will be to cover long-past obligations with current taxes or current borrowing.

The problem is being aggravated increasingly. Benefits are keyed to salary scales, - salary scales have risen sharply in recent years and are due to rise again. And every year there are greater numbers of employees to whom benefits are owed.

Viewing the degree of national financial mismanagement solely from the standpoint of the announced size of the budget deficit, you see, can present an unrealistically rosy picture even when it's glum.

School Law Faces Fight

the submission of county school boards for consolidation of districts under the 1961 school reorganization law, the State Council of Education is currently taking on a heavy schedule.

Following a hearing on Tuesday, a council subcommittee has given conditional approval to Luzerne County's plan, which was opposed on various grounds by 19 of the 60 affected school districts. Plans presented by eight other counties were voted outright approval. Hearings on other county proposals are on the schedule for this week.

While the Attorney General's office has held that those counties which fail to meet the Dec. 31 deadline may jeopardize their rights and may lose state aid, the situation has been confounded by Governor-elect Scranton's campaign statement proposing that "all deadlines now included in the act be postponed one year." With his election last month, those districts which had been fighting

With Dec. 31 set as the deadline for the 1961 law were encouraged to hold out by his suggestion for a one - year moratorium on enforcement of the act.

> In the meantime, the committee named by he Pennsylvania State School Directors Association to study the 1961 statute has announced its determination to fight for repeal of the act by the 1963 Legislature. The organization favors a substitute measure under which school district reorganization would be governed by curricula rather than

Thus the program evolved by Governor Lawrence's bipartisan Committee on Education is headed for attacks from several fronts. Having supported the 1961 act, we have suggested that if it has shortcomings or defects they could be corrected by amendments. The Unofficial Experts

(Ed. Note: The following column was written by Mr. Sokolsky before his death on Wednesday night.)

In a free society, it is not necessary to be a public official to have an opinion. Newspapermen, college professors, clergymen, all sorts of people often have sharp and telling remarks to make about government pollcy. The question often arises: How do they know?

I have been in the business of gathering information for 45 years and I can testify that it is a hard chore to gather and viet Deputy First Premier seems to be on the front page of every newspaper. It is understandable, in view of Soviet successes, that he should be broadly smiling. But all our officials are beaming at the blood-stained murderer. The effect this is having on the Cubans, as well as the billion other people he is enslaving must be sickening . .

"Soviet success in achieving conspicuous pictures of our officials beaming on, or toasting their officials while other peoples are being enslaved or en route to slavery is an important part of their warfare against us. Not only is it crushing resistance on the part of people who yearn to be free but it tends to perts manage? By what magic put our people back to sleep." Well, this is strong language

> Governments operate by agreements or by war. The decision that President Kennedy had to make was whether he preferred war or an agreement. Maybe, some of us would favor an immediate and devastating nuclear war. Our people, on the whole, prefer what was done and whether the genius of the blockade and the method of inspection was President Kennedy or Adlai Stevenson or John J. McCloy, nobody really cares

If, by December 20, the President can stake his reputation for truthfulness that the Russian offensive weapons are out, he will be acclaimed because he will have achieved a great victory without firing a shot. Is it a permanent victory? Probably not. The Russians will try again, maybe some where else and we shall have to undo them by another stratagem many times. They have their tasks and we have ours. The Western world has now been at war 50 years, with various kinds of warfare at their service. Allies change and enemies change. It is like reading about the Hundred Years' War or about the War of the Spanish Succession. Do you know that the American Revolution was a phase of a European War? You might ask, Has the human race learned nothing from these wars? Truth to tell, not too much except how to make larg-

Soviet Buildup Of Bases In Cuba Continuing

By Robert S. Allen and Paul Scott

Washington, Dec. 14 - There are ominous new signs that Premier Khrushchev is going ahead with his original plan to make Cuba a Soviet military base despite his withdrawal of Russian missiles and bombers.

The latest U.S. aerial reconnaissance flights, quietly doubled this week on orders of President Kennedy, clearly show these alarming Soviet activities in Cu-

Installation of four new-type ground-to-air missiles, designed to destroy low-flying jet planes. Increased building at Russia newly-acquired fishing - naval base at Banes; also on three airfields in central Cuba. Unloading of new military equipment, including Soviet army trucks and command cars, at two Cuban ports.

By Burton H. Fern, M.D. You don't have a cold or a fever-how do you explain that cold sore (fever blister)? Anything that lowers resistance - sunburn, overfatigue, menstrual flow, nervous tension, Better Soon Clusters of itching, burning blisters break out, surrounded by angry red skin. Soon tiny blisters dry up and crust over. You should be all better within a week or 10 days.

old and some day I hope to become a spy. My parents and relatives have tried to discourage me, but I have dreamed of being a spy as long as I can remember. When I mention my future plans to adults, they laugh and think I am kidding, but I am not, Abby. Spies have very exciting lives and they perform great services for their country. Do you think this is a childish dream or should I go through with it? I know what I am getting into as I have read every spy story I could get my hands on.

DEAR FUTURE GIRL SPY: The "spy" stories you have read probably emphasized the glamor, excitement and adventure of such work. But to get down to realities, a spy must be well grounded in history, geography, foreign languages, crimfnal psychology, the art of self-defense and many other fields. No one should laugh when a 15-year-old expresses his or her ambition, At least you have one.

FUTURE GIRL SPY

DEAR ABBY: My feathers were ruffled yast year when you said the mimeographed newsletter-type Christmas greeting was usually boring and a lazy way of getting out of writing all year or something like that. What is "lazy" about composing a friendly newsy letter to keep all your friends up to date on your activities? I enjoy Christmas newsletters from others and had assumed they enjoyed mine. Besides, it's the only thing I ever wrote that was published. And I had a circulation of about 150

DEAR FRUSTRATED: I, too, enjoy the newsy, cheerful, clever Christmas letter. It's the ones containing "news" of Aunt Bessie's gall bladder operation, a flood in the basement and Rover being hit by a car that I can live without.

DEAR ABBY: My wife is beautiful, healthy and lazy. She sleeps from 10 to 12 hours a night and complains about having to do the lightest kind of housework. I am ashamed to invite anyone to drop in as the house is a mess 75 per cent of the time. I work 10 hours a day, rain or shine, to keep her in

DEAR ABBY: I am 15 years style. She can buy anything she wants. Don't you think it's a wife's job to keep the house tidied up? Why should a man knock himself out to keep a woman cool, comfortable and well fed for nothing? Fed Up And Ready To Quit

DEAR FED: Your wife is spoiled and you spoiled her! Of course it's her job to keep the place reasonably neat. If a man wants a beautiful ornament around the house to look at, he can buy a statue.

DEAR ABBY: My husband never puts the caps on tooth paste, mouth wash, deodorants, shaving lotion or hair tonic. How can I get him to be more

NAGGING WIFE

DEAR NAGGING: If I were to send you a small sampling of letters from wives who complain because their husband never take the caps OFF the above-mentioned items, you'd put the caps on yourself, and be glad to do it.

CONFIDENTIAL TO AL: When someone calls on you and talks endlessly about how well he is doing, before he leaves, you had better count your spoons.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Already Russian missilemen have succeeded in chasing the Air Force's high-flying U-2 planes from the skies over Cuba by shooting one down with their deadly SA-2 missile.

The Air Force, now using lowlevel reconnaissance planes, has been able to continue the surveillance of Cuba without losing any additional planes. The SA-2 surface-to-air missile is unable to hit these low-flying jets because of the missile's design. The Czech-made anti-aircraft guns in Cuba are too slow for these supersonic planes.

PLUGGING THE HOLE - So iet servicemen are now trying to plug this gap in their defenses by setting up a new inter-ring of SA-3 surface-to-air missiles, capable of hitting low-flying U. S. planes as well as the higher flying U-2s.

The first of these new missiles is scheduled to be operational sometime in January, pointing to the chilling possibility of a new Cuban confrontation between U.S. planes and Russian missiles at Taken together with 22 related international programs, we are fraternizing in this fashion at a year - which is about 30 times the greens fee for the same course in 1945." President Kennedy's economic advisers estimate that U.S. aid to India during the next 10 years will have a total at least $6 billion if it is to be effective. That 's about three times more than the $2 billion the U.S. provided India from 1952 to 1962. Mrs. Takeo Ohashi, matronly wife of Japan's Minister of Labor, wowed a party at the home of Vice President and Mrs. Johnson with her witty account of life in her homeland, With other Japanese cabinet wives, Mrs. Ohashi spent a week in Washington and enjoyed it hugely. One of her tart observations at the John son party was, "There are two things in Japan which have emerged stronger since the war - nylon hose and women". A new twist to the twist was demonstrated at a gay party at the Philippine embassy by young new Ambassador Amelito Mutuc He and his wife are extremely fond of dancing, and they prevailed on the orchestra to play a twist with Tagalog words. But there seemed to be no difference in the twist twisting.

I am writing this column in a terrific rush, for today is a day to end all days. It is a day when I wrote an extra dozen or so radio spots, am due at the Penn Stroud Hotel this afternoon to talk before the Republican Woman's club on my Madonnas, and to appear this evening at the Methodist church of East Stroudsburg to dramatize Henry Van Dyke's "The Other Wise Man." In between, somewhere or other is the office party, and a couple of changes of attire. Only a few times in a lifetime are there days like this, thank goodness . . . but today may be just that way for you too. Christmas is such a bustly time! Sometimes, of course, we see more as we rush along than we do when we're standing still, and I find I've been soaking up impressions of our store all day. I'm aware of the music, naturally . . . not only from Muzak but from the cash registers, tingling away at a heartwarming rate. And what are people buying?—just everything. Everything from the stunning footwear that will dance its way merrily through this festive season, to figurines that are so adorable they'll never bring themselves to part with them but will eventually buy something else for Aunt Ella or the child next door. Speaking of figurines . . . the other morning, I was admiring some of children in our center aisle Gift Department. I thought them delightful and entirely unbelievable, for they were priced at 69c each and looked very much more expensive. Mr. Wyckoff came by about this time and I pointed them out to him. "These are lovely for the price." I mentioned another figurine which is actually a collectors' item, and expressed the feeling that these lower-priced ones were almost identical. He agreed. As a matter of fact, he took one of each to the front of the store and had several people, whose good taste he can count upon, tell him which was the finer figurine. ALL chose the 69c-er.

I mention this because it proves two things: one cannot always select according to the price tag and say, "THIS is best"; and WYCKOFF'S can serve you well, whether you are interested in spending a few pennies or a great many dollars. As I've said before, our store has EVERYTHING . . . not just idea or size-wise, but price-wise too.

There is so much in Wyckoff's to see and admire. Even our Fownes gloves are so pretty and colorful they seem to be part of the brilliant decorations of Christmas. I love colored gloves, dont you?-yet when I buy, I stick to conservatives. Too bad someone doesn't whisper to Santa that I'm really aching to go handsomely spectacular, but wouldn't treat myself to anything for mere occasional wear on my budget. I am sure other women think the same as I . . . maybe YOU do. And wouldn't YOU just love a dazzling glove to accent your favorite costume?

Being a woman, I enjoy giving for Christmas the frivolous things I admire but usually pass by. And that's exactly what I like to receive . . . the extravagant fripperies that amuse me, but which I'd never buy for myself. I feel MEN who are buying for their wives should keep this in mind. I am in perfect accord with the woman who says, "If my husband wants to give me a Frigidaire range, or an electric dish washer, I'm all for it. If he wants to give me satin house slippers, I'm with him. I'll go along with just about anything that shows he's being considerate of my time or flattering my ego . . . but if he gives me thermo underwear, or an alarm clock so I can get HIS breakfast on time, I'll sue for divorce."

Sooooo, Men . : . if you've been too practical in your shopping thus far, better rush out and buy some little trifle that's definitely mad, just to show the lady you're mad about HER.

Your Horoscope By FRANCIS DRAKE

Friday, December 14

March 21 to April 20 (Arles)
Pluto and other aspects offer more than a modest share of world's true advantages — free discoveries in the mental and spiritual realm, happy doings with a little extra effort.

April 21 to May 21 (Taurus) — Here it comes again: that old-timer Self-Restraint. A certain amount of added dash and seasoning — for good measure too. Respect others' hours, interests and you will be granted like.

May 22 to June 21 (Gemini) — Press forward, but cautiously, recognizing there are some changes, tender spots, and plenty of areas for diplomacy where formerly just old-fashioned spunk was enough.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer) — Definite trend toward complications, needless wordage, and overdoing. See them coming at a distance and outmaneuver promptly. You have the wits, use them, without fear but WITH tact.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo) — Some influences definitely stronger than others. Know your work and expected gains. Point toward them relentlessly but heeding time-outs for the unforeseen, emergencies. Be inwardly at ease.

August 24 to September 23 (Virgo) — Waste no moments beginning and he less hurried toward end of day and duties. Raise fresh interest where you can; he proud of small skills, yours AND others. This way is to contentment.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra) — It is more often the task we did not care to do that rewards with most gain for sincere effort. If someone asks a favor, weigh consequences; where anyone will gain, readily acquiesce.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio) — Rate everything carefully; take no foolish chances by guessing or acting on impulse, so rife now. But some slashes in certain areas are due. Come to rescue of truth.

Navember 23 to December 21 (Sagitarlus) — Reason, logic again guessing or acting on impulse, so rife now, But some slashes in certain areas are due. Come to rescue of truth.

November 23 to December 21 (Sagittarius) — Reason, logic again demand a hearing. A few snags, others' temperament not so congenial. So you be more anxious to please than ever, it can be done with nice effects.

December 22 to January 20 (Capricorn) — Idne up on side of hope with diligent endeavor to detect right means, and pursue them. Do not count the pennles when a good turn or needy cause passes by; past commitments still waiting?

January 21 to February 19 (Aquarius) — Much better than average aspects. Put your heart and best manner into work, extra obligations, whatever. Take a hint, too. Stand up for principles staunchly; you will win.

February 20 to March 20 (Pisces) — Worry, fretting out a problem only unnerve, leave dimmed vision. Everything human has a faul ty way; we are put on the oid earth to wend our way sturdily, with faith. Our forbearers did.

YOU BORN TODAY: The period ahead calls for your type enthusiastic vigor, but also reminds of needed self-restraint, less strenuous pushing where there are delicate spots, feelings to be considered. Sagittarius is ambitious, intelligent, but may ride over a friend or opponent with needless passion for the prize, lose a friend along the way. Slow down to give all a chance to breathe the air of forethought, discreet planning, painstaking procedure — required more often than realized. You have advantages galore ahead — use wisely. Secretiveness could trap, also excessive pleasures, hurrying. You can recoup losses quickly; may become financier, inventor. Stay home enough to know that area of contentment and happiness. Many military stragetists here, and business executives. Don't let irritability take over if things don't just suit. Consider all consequences before acting. Under self-control yon can achieve wonders. Birthdate of: U.S. Gen. James Doolittle; Tycho Brahe, Danish astronomer; Louise Ellen Murkle, world traveller.

明確明發明從明後明後明後明後明後明後明後明後明後 was-Two weeks before Christmas

When I looked at my car, The model was old, and Had been driven too far. The inside was ripped, The seat it was torn, The brakes didn't work

And also the horn. The windshield was busted, The old clutch was broke, The gas line was clogged

And so was the choke.

I cried and I mouned And started to cuss, Something had to be done About my old bus.

And am now all aglow,

So I went to Jolley's

Like their ad said

I got more for my dough. Now I laugh at the bumps And get mileage galore, My new car looks swell and Here's something more:

Jolley's sold me my car

On a long, easy plan,

My payments are low, I'm a happy man. You can be happy, too BUY a USED CAR
